About this document

This Privacy Statement informs you of our privacy practices and of the choices you can make about the way we collect and use information about you, including information that may be collected from your online activity, use of information provided to Ex-Pat Radio Cyprus and your rights under the local data protection law and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

For the purposes of this statement, personal data shall mean any information relating to you which identifies or may identify you and which includes, for example, your name, and email address.

This Privacy Statement does not apply to third-party applications, products, services, websites or social media features that may be accessed through links we provide on this website for your convenience and information. Accessing those links will cause you to leave this website and may result in the collection or sharing of information about you by a third-party.

We do not control, endorse or make any representations about those third-party websites or their privacy practices, which may differ from ours. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any site you interact with before allowing the collection and use of your personal data.

Our privacy principles

We have an accountability-based policy and are committed to the following principles, which are based on internationally-recognised frameworks and principles of privacy and data protection:

Lawfulness, fairness & transparency.

We process personal data in accordance with law and with transparency and fairness to you. Our data processing activities are conducted:

- a. With your consent.
- b. In order to fulfil our obligations to you.
- c. For the legitimate purposes of operating this website, advancing knowledge and providing a seamless user experience.
- d. Otherwise in accordance with law.

Notice and choice of data use.

We are transparent and provide clear notice and choice to you about the types of personal data collected and the purposes for which it is collected and processed. We will not use personal data for purposes that are incompatible with these Principles, our Privacy Statement or specific notices associated with our services.
